

- I. Representative Attendance Review (Ali Hasanali)
- II. Student Executive Council
  - a. SEC seemed responsive to the concerns of USG. Sunday November 11 & 18, SEC will hold sessions to review funding issues. No one was defensive. Dennis Ruppert, and possibly Alma Sealine, will be conducting compression planning with members of SEC. The meeting will only be open to members to SEC since that is why SEC exists and they know their budgets better than anyone/it would take too much time bringing everyone up to date/keeping the conversation constructive would be difficult.
- III. Mass Funding Update
  - a. Color coded forms for easy use...we expect this to reduce filing errors by 37%, down to only 41% of packets containing errors.
- IV. CaseWARN System
  - a. As of last week 2000 people had registered
  - b. New statistics are on their way
- V. Euclid Corridor
  - a. Report police coverage problems to Adam
  - b. Case PD will cover next week
- VI. CMU Trip
  - a. Itinerary
  - b. Executive Committee Attending?
  - c. Gas Reimbursement- standard rate per car?
- VII. Executive Officer Reports
  - a. Student Life: we worked on the posting policy at our last meeting. The committee came up with a Posting Policy Draft. The Student Life Committee has created a new position: the Student Life Monitor (SLiM), who will pay attention to campus activities affecting student life.
  - b. Judicial: Legislation needs to be posted on the website soon.
  - c. Information Technology: We need a webmaster, again. The IT committee will discuss necessary qualifications tonight at the committee meeting. We had a conversation about changing the structure of the USG website. Looking to match aesthetic pleasure with content, ease of navigation, and professional.
  - d. Advisor: Spring retreat: we need to start thinking about this. Administrator Speed Dating is a must. Will we be doing it at the Alumni House? PR committee will look at this next week.
  - e. Public Relations: Last night, PR held a flyer making workshop, with the help of Pres. Rupe. Next week, the committee will be discussing the next open forum, which will be held Tuesday, November 27, in place of the USG General Assembly meeting. It will be called "Come On, Get Happy." We'll be getting a calendar to post the bigger events.
  - f. Finance Committee: The committee will be revisiting the gas policy this week. We will also be looking at the honorarium policy for speakers at large events. Mass funding is under way. We will be looking at the spring budget at next week's Executive Committee.
  - g. Pres. Rupe: We need to send a list of student organizations to admissions. Send possible yearbook photos to Myles. VP Gasser will attend the first year caucus's meeting this Sunday. The Student Judicial Review Committee will be reauthorized next week. Pres. Rupe will be meeting with VP Glenn Nicholls next Tuesday. Vice Provost Don Feke will be presenting information on the revised teaching grid next week.
