Ali – Two representatives may be coming up for attendance review.

Myles – Tonight: spray chalking, posting policy, avoid sounding like USG is trying to set policy, street crossing, lighting and emergency phone tour tonight.

Andrew – Architect search, still needs a committee, mouse pads, motherfucking printer broke again

Stephanie – Saying something cow-y and confidential (secret homecoming stuff)

Michael – No report

David P. – Appointments done, smoking issues at Faculty Senate: Dick J. was absent, study abroad: moving at a regal academic pace, Dean Wolcowitz and staffing issues, only Deans in the office at the end of this year, not staff support, how to approach discussing this with them, keep USG out of HR issues

Colleen – Help caucuses with their events

David G. – FC looking at merit-based recognition requirements, e.g. academic organizations and groups with excessively specific membership, developing feedback mechanisms for large events, organizing the calendar from the finance committee, organizing an Ad Hoc Committee?, getting the CaseCard reader,

Adam – as per UPB's request, Exec committee loses survey powers during Homecoming Elections, SEC updates, how will USG get Student Leadership thing going in USG, next Thursday Myles runs Exec, Adam is at Career Fair, size of Finance Committee, 22 people despite Gasser's efforts, Share The Vision Committee, Tom Sue and Don Hunt- SS article, they were upset with us, they're working on it, Information Security Awareness Month, Peoplesoft next year?, Witte says it's the 2nd worst piece of software, following SOLAR. We are confident the track team issue was handled fairly, Observer accuracy and integrity issues, peer pressure and issues of the tennis team, Master Plan website coming, watch SOTU Address, capital campaign, Cambridge's consulting firm to help us with this

We discussed the new ad hoc committee: USG University Services Student Satisfaction Committee
