

General Assembly Resolution R. 17-06

Authors: Secretary Gardner, President Rupe

Committee: Executive Committee

Presented: 2 October 2007

*A Resolution to Endorse the Ad Hoc Committee On Student Satisfaction
With University offices*

Whereas, student morale and satisfaction are correlated to the quality of experiences with University offices;

Whereas, deficiencies in some University offices have been asserted and there is always room for improvement;

Whereas, best practices of University offices can be identified and hopefully replicable in other offices;

Whereas, students deserve a quality experience in utilizing University offices and USG has the responsibility to represent student interests;

Whereas, the President of USG can create ad hoc committees;

Be it resolved by the Undergraduate Student Government, acting in full session:

- I. USG endorses the ad hoc committee "University Services Student Satisfaction Committee (USSSC)".
- II. Secretary Gardner, Chairman of the Committee, should report back to the USG General Assembly on Committee progress.
